

HUMBOLDT STATE UNIVERSITY

Vacancy Announcement
Faculty Tenure-Track Position Starting August 2019
Department of Kinesiology & Recreation Administration
Physical Education Pedagogy
JOB #1920-18

Humboldt State University is committed to achieving the goals of equal opportunity and endeavors to employ faculty, staff, and administrators of the highest quality reflecting the ethnic and cultural diversity of the state

DESCRIPTION: Humboldt State University's Department of Kinesiology and Recreation Administration invites applications for an academic year tenure-track faculty position in Physical Education Pedagogy and Adapted Physical Education. The position will include teaching in the undergraduate and graduate programs in kinesiology, and being a member of the Adapted Physical Education Program grant funded by the United States Department of Education. The Department has a long history of preparing effective physical education and adapted physical education teachers, and received outstanding reviews in the last accreditation report from the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing. In the past twenty-five years, the department has received five federal grants to fund the adapted physical education program. The adapted physical education program is dedicated to preparing teachers to design and implement physical education programs that promote healthy and active lifestyles for children and youth with disabilities. The department continues to create innovative partnerships such as HSU Fit and Fitfam, community-based physical activity programs for children and their parents.

RANK, SALARY AND BENEFITS: We seek to fill this position at the Assistant Professor rank; however rank and salary are dependent on the appointee's qualifications and experience. The current California State University Salary Schedule is available at: <https://hraps.humboldt.edu/faculty-salary-schedule>

Humboldt State University provides an excellent benefits package. Information about benefits plans can be found at: <http://www.humboldt.edu/forms/node/934>

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS: An earned Doctorate or equivalent in Kinesiology or related field from an accredited college or university is preferred at the time of appointment. Applicants with considerable progress towards terminal degree completion by appointment date will be considered. Completion of terminal degree is required prior to the start of the second probationary year following initial appointment.

The successful candidate must demonstrate the following:

- ✓ Potential for effective teaching in physical education and adapted physical education;
- ✓ Record of building successful partnerships with k-12 schools;
- ✓ Record of experience in program development including grant writing;
- ✓ Demonstration of and/or experience promoting and fostering a learning environment that is supportive of individuals from diverse backgrounds;
- ✓ Record of, or potential for, involving students in research and scholarly activity;
- ✓ Experience managing an accredited teacher education program and writing program documents and reports;
- ✓ Potential for effective teaching or teaching experience using a variety of methodologies;

- ✓ Interest and ability to teach a broad range of courses in kinesiology and physical education/adapted physical education; and
- ✓ Willingness to participate in the development of online learning experiences.

Preferred qualifications for this position include:

- ✓ Commitment to the development of field experience placements and supervision of students in fieldwork and student teaching; and
- ✓ Experience providing in-service education for k-12 teachers.

At the time of appointment, the successful candidate, if not a U.S. citizen, must have authorization from the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services to work in the United States. For information on the University policy on support for non-immigrant probationary faculty visa acquisition, please visit: <https://extended.humboldt.edu/international-programs/immigration/faculty>

Evidence of degree(s) is required at time of hire.

PROFESSIONAL DUTIES: Candidates should be committed to teaching excellence and to building a strong research record. Instructional assignments may include: Concepts of Teaching courses, Curriculum and Instructional Strategies, Elementary School Physical Education, Senior Seminar, Adapted Physical Education, Adapted Physical Education Programs, Motor Assessment, Research Methods, and School Health Programs. Instructional assignments will be consistent with the programmatic needs of the department and students.

The primary professional responsibilities of instructional faculty members are: teaching; research, scholarship and creative activity; and service to the University, profession and to the community. These responsibilities include: advising students, participation in campus and system-wide committees, maintaining office hours, working collaboratively and productively with colleagues, and participation in traditional academic functions. Mentoring graduate students in thesis/project work will be a teaching responsibility in this position. Probationary faculty are typically provided ongoing mentorship to be a successful member of the faculty. During the first two years of the probationary period, teaching responsibilities will be reduced by approximately one course each semester. The reduced teaching load supports the establishment of research, scholarship and/or creative activities required for retention, tenure and promotion.

GENERAL INFORMATION: The Department of Kinesiology and Recreation Administration houses undergraduate programs in Kinesiology and Recreation Administration and a graduate program in Kinesiology. The Kinesiology major has 500 major and minor students. The undergraduate program has three options, one of which is the physical education teaching concentration, a California Commission on Teacher Credentialing approved subject matter program required for entry into a teaching credential program. In addition the department offers the Adapted Physical Education Added Authorization, a state approved program of study for those preparing to teach adapted physical education in k-12 schools.
